

We Are Hiring!

Are you self-motivated and community-minded, eager to learn from others and make a difference in the world? Love helping children and families? Want to expand your skill sets and experiences?

We are looking for people like you!

Join ELG's dynamic team, dedicated to helping local and international families, and apply your skills in a culturally diverse environment.

- Positions:
- Educational-Psychologists & Assessment Professionals
- Speech Language Pathologists & Assistants
- Occupational Therapists & Assistants
- Counselors, Psychologists & other Mental Health Professionals

Responsibilities & Qualifications:

- Perform assessments, develop treatment & instructional plans, provide therapeutic services and interventions, conduct professional development training, consult with families and schools, and more...
- Master's degree or equivalent in your discipline; experience supporting children with autism, developmental delays, or other learning disabilities a plus; Mandarin speakers desirable.

Work Location: Shanghai, China

Working at ELG:

Join a dynamic, multi-disciplinary, multi-cultural team. ELG is a purpose driven, social enterprise dedicated to making an impact. Opportunities for personal growth & development. Specialists like you are our core resource - we provide outstanding support so you can focus on what you do best - supporting children and families.

The Essential Learning Group

Join us to make an impact to the wider communities!

Send your CV to careers@chinaelg.com

Since 2006, ELG has focused on helping families and children with additional needs be future-ready and to fully participate in their schools, families, and communities.
chinaelg.cn