General Expectations

This is an independent contractor position. Upon completing the onboarding process, you will be given a caseload of up to four (4) clients to start, possibly more after the first two months. Depending on the needs of each client and the training process, your hours will range between four and a half to six per week, on average, 18 per month. When assigned an SST client, you are committed to providing service according to the signed agreement and treatment plan between the client and SST. As an SST independent contractor, you must adhere to our policies and procedures when taking leave to minimize adversely affecting the client's progress. Your experience and qualifications will determine your compensation. There are no additional benefits. We are offering a one (1) year contract with the possibility of extension.
