COURSE INFORMATION

BECOMING A BEHAVIOURAL DETECTIVE

This workshop explore the science of neurobiology, sensory processing, developmental trauma, attachment, executive functioning, and emotional regulation that drive complex behaviour. Rather than reacting to what's on the surface, participants will learn to think like Behavioural Detectives – using clinical curiosity and evidence-informed reasoning to uncover the "why" and build compassionate, individualized support strategies for use at home, in schools, in the workplace and in everyday relationships.

PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ABLE TO:

Identify the neurobiology of challenging behaviour

Understand sensory contributions and intervention strategies for complex behaviour

Explain the effects of developmental trauma and attachment patterns

Recognize the lifelong value of co-regulation through relationships

Identify executive function challenges and appropriate intervention approaches

Understand the dynamics of self-harm and aggression

Apply a mindset of curiosity to build healthier, more respectful and connected relationships
